Question 2.

Explain with suitable examples which part of the service sector is not growing in importance.

Answer:

The employment generation part of service sector is not growing in importance. The service sector in india employs different kinds of people. At one end, there are a limited number of services that employ highly skilled and educated workers.

At the other end, there are a very large number of workers engaged in services such as small shopkeepers, repair persons cattle, owners transport drivers and electricians. These people barely manage to earn there living and yet they perform these services because no alternative opportunity for work are available for them.
