Read the following extracts and answer the questions that follow----

(A)

All I think about, when I'm with friends is having a good time. I can't bring myself to talk about anything but ordinary everyday things. We don't seem to be able to get any closer, and that's the problem. May be it's my fault that we don't confide in each other. In any case, that's just how things are, and unfortunately they're not liable to change. This is why I've started the diary.

- (a) 'And that's the problem'. What is the problem referred to here?
- (b) Why did Anne start writing a diary,?
- (c) Find the synonym of trust from the passage.
- (d) Why did she not get closer to her friends?

(B)

To enhance the image of this long awaited friend in my imagination, I don't want to jot down the facts in this diary the way most people would do, but I want the diary to be my friend, and I'm going to call this friend 'Kitty.
