From The Diary of Anne Frank

Read the following extracts carefully and answer the questions that follow----

(A)

‘Paper has more patience than people.’ I thought of this saying on one of those days when I was feeling a little depressed and was sitting at home with my chin in my hands, bored and listless wondering whether to stay in or go out. I finally stayed where I was, brooding. Yes, paper does have more patience, and since I’m not planning to let anyone else read this stiff-backed notebook grandly referred to as a ‘diary’, unless I should ever find a real friend, it probably won’t make a bit of difference.

1.How did Anne remain when she was sitting at home?

2.What kind of diary has been referred to?

3.Which word in the passage is the antonym of ‘flexible’?

4.What does the writer believe in?

(B)

I wrote the three pages Mr Keesing had assigned me and was satisfied. I argued that talking is a student's trait and that I would do my best to keep it under control, but that I would never be able to cure myself of the habit, since my mother talked as much as I did.

(a)What did Mr Keesing ask Anne to write? Why ?

(b)What did she argue in her essay?

(c)Pick out the word from the passage that means the same as characteristics.

(d)What did she promise her teacher in her essay?
