(A)

So,in order not to shake the writer's faith in God.The postmaster came up with an idea: answer the letter. But when he opened it,it was evident that to answer it he needed something more than goodwill, ink and paper. But he struck to his resolution: he asked for money from his employees,he himself gave a part of his salary, and several friends of his were obliged to give something 'for an act of charity'.

(i)What did the postmaster decide to respond?

(ii)Why did the postmaster decide to answer the letter?

(iii)What did the postman need to respond the letter?

(iv)How did he manage money for the writer of the letter?

(B)

The only thing the earth needed was a downpour or at least a shower. Throughout the morning,

Lencho—who knew his fields intimately---had done nothing else but see the sky towards the north-east. “ Now we are really going to get some water,woman”. The woman, who was preparing supper,replied, “Yes,God willing.” The older boys were working in the field, while the smaller ones were playing near the house until the woman called to them all, “Come for dinner.”

(i)What was Lencho doing throughout the morning?

(ii)What did he assure to his wife?

(iii)What were boys doing?

(iv)Why did the woman called her sons?
