

CLASS:-11TH, HISTORY

1. Question

Who wrote the novel Hard Times?

Answer:

Charles Dickens wrote the novel Hard Times.

2. Question

When and where was Combination Act enacted? What was its aim?

Answer:

Combination Act was enacted by the British government in 1799-1800. This act aimed at imposing restrictions or ban on the trade unions.

3. Question

What do you know about factory system?

Answer:

It is a system under which the process of production began in factories, whereas it had been earlier carried out from the house/cottage.

4. Question

Name any four cities of Britain where protest movement took place against the Enclosure movement.

Answer:

The cities were:

1. Durbysire
2. Lancashire
3. Leicestershire
4. Nottinghamshire

5. Question

Name the two persons who made a remarkable contribution in the construction of canal in England.

Answer:

1. Duke of Bridgewater
2. James Brindley

6. Question

By whom and when was Worsely canal constructed? When was it opened?

Answer:

Worsely canal was constructed by James Brindely in 1759. It was opened in 1761.