

CLASS :-11TH

POLITICAL SCIENCE,

NOTES

CHAPTER:-4

Chief Minister

- He is the head of the State Executive Council . He is appointed governor by the Governor on the advice of the Chief Minister and other ministers are appointed . The party that has a majority in the assembly of the team leader is the chief minister .
- The term is 5 years .

Functions and Powers of the Chief Minister

- He serves as a link between the Governor and the Council of Ministers .
- the decisions of the council is to pass information to the governor .
- the chief ministers are free to choose their partners .
- He may ask for the resignation of any minister.
- He is the leader of the State Assembly .
- information that the administration must present the governor asks him .

Governor :

- A state governor is appointed by the President .
- He is the Chairman of the Executive .
- This should be a person who has a long experience of public life and administration, on which it is believed that he will work to rise above party loyalties .
- A person appointed as Governor of two or more states can be .

Functions and Powers of the Governor:

- as the constitutional head of the state government and central government acts as an agent
- The appointment of the Chief Minister and other Ministers of State on the advice of the Chief Minister appoints .
- the leader of the majority party to form the government invites .
- government all work is done in the name of the Governor .
- the appointment of high court judges and members of the state Public Service Commission appoints .
- the Governor of the State Legislature session suspend and dissolve the assembly session calls and does

- the bill is approved
- any money bill can not be introduced without the permission of the Governor .
- State in all matters falling under the jurisdiction of the person convicted of any offense can donate spare.

Bureaucracy:

- The executive also said the civil service bureaucracy by their permanent appointment is made permanently .
- They are not elected by the public .

le the role of the civil service bureaucrats

(I) civil service in public policy formulation and analysis of problems is to recommend to the Council of Ministers.

ii)the administrative work is handled quickly and policies is implemented

(iii) The role of developmental and welfare activities are bucking .

(IV) implement the five-year plan and the governments help in getting done .India elected administration