The Art forms

There are two types of art forms ;

- 1.Traditional Art
- 2.Modern Art

2 . Modern Art:

It is art which has worldwide scope without any limitation. Gradual as well as drastic changes may be observed within a short period of time. No limitations or boudations are obsessed in using or implementing technique, mediums , methodology and the subject- matter.

Form the beginning of the prehistoric period to till date, the art and it's forms depicted on various surface using many tools, colour, technique , methodology and beliefs are intact or having their existence. The next few chapters are on the art forms which are prevalent till now, so you will be familiar with all those technique, medium and methodology which are in use now.

1. Drawing and painting in Different Medium

2.Sculpture in different Medium

3.Architecture and Applied Architecture.
