

CLASS:--12TH, POLITICAL SCIENCE, CHAPTER:-01

India and the Cold War

- India followed a two way policy regarding the Cold War. It did not join any of the alliances and raised voice against the newly decolonised countries becoming part of these alliances.
- The policy of India was not fleeing away' but was in favour of actively intervening in world affairs to soften Cold War rivalries.
- The Non-Alignment gave India the power to take international decisions and to balance one superpower against the other.
- India's policy of Non-Alignment was criticised on a number of counts. But still it has become both as an international movement and a core of India's foreign policy.
