

CLASS:--12TH

POLITICAL SCIENCE,

REVISION NOTES,

INDIA-PAKISTAN CONFLICTS

- It seems that it never will be ended.
- In 1947-48, war between India & Pakistan for Kashmir issue (one-third part covered by Pakistan & named as POK)
- In 1965, after war, Tashkent agreement between India & Pakistan.
- In 1971, India fought for Bangladesh for the independence.
- In 1999, Kargil war
- In 1998, India conducted Nuclear Test in Pokaran.
- In 1999, Pakistan conducted nuclear test in the Chagai Hills in Baluchistan.
- India & Pakistan Govt. Make Blame on each other.
- The Indian government has blamed the Pakistan government for using a strategy of violence by helping the Kashmiri militants with arms, training, money and protection to carry out terrorist strikes against India.
- In 1985-1995, Pakistan had aided the pro- Khalistan militants with arms and ammunitions.
- The government of Pakistan blames the Indian government and its security agencies for trouble in the provinces of Sindh and Baluchistan.
- In 1960, with the help of the World Bank, India and Pakistan signed the Indus Waters Treaty.
- Controversial issues- Kashmir, Rann of Kutch in Gujarat, River water, Ideology.