The Deccan school of Miniature painting

Origin and Development

Deccani art denotes broadly the miniatures rendered from 16th to 19th century A.D at Bijayapur, Ahmednagar, Golconda and Hyderabad These independent states have their own distinct geographical and historical identity known as Deccan. Deccan has its own distinction in Art, culture, dramatics, linguistics, social values, costumes, religious beliefs, thoughts and ideas.

The style and themes in Deccani miniatures are an amalgamation of various art elements and influence, especially the elements of early indigenous art tradition of the Deccan and the Islamic idiom of Iran , Persia and Turkey.
