CHAPTER-13 . THE CRANE AND THE CRAB

B. Answer the questions.

1. How did the crane make the fish believe him?

Answer-The crane took one of the fish to the other pond and then return with him . This made other fishes believe him.

2. What did the crane do to the fish?

Answer-The crane flew to a tree,sat on a branch and ate the fish up.

3. How clever I am! The foolish fish.

They never got to know my plan.

a. Was the crane sorry for the fish?

Answer- No, the crane was not sorry for the fish.

b. What was the crane's plan?

Answer- The crane's plan was to eat up all the fishes by fooling them.

4. Who was more clever- the crane or the crab? Give reasons for your answer.

Answer- The crab was more clever. This is because he had used his mind and saved his life from that greedy crane.

Homework-Write it clearly in your notebook and remember it.
