One bright summer day, a  was hopping and chirping, all happy and gay.

He saw some  pass by, carrying

One  stopped to take rest.

The  said to the  , 'All you  do is work all day. You should be more like me and play!'

The  replied, 'I am storing grains for the  season. You should be working, for just the same reason. What will you eat when it gets very cold?'

The  laughed, 'All you  do is work and worry. Slow down and don't be in such a hurry.'

The  kept working.

The  kept playing.
