The tailor hid behind a tree. He then picked up a stone quietly and threw it at the first gaint. The gaint woke up and looked around in anger. But he did not see anybody except his friend. He thought that his friend had hit him and he was now pretending to sleep. He woke up his friend and shouted at him. His friend said he had not hit him. They both back to sleep again. The tailor picked up another stone from behind the tree and threw it at the second gaint. The gaint woke up angrily. Now he thought his friend, the first gaint, had hit him with the stone. So, he hit his sleeping friend with the same stone. His friend woke up and hit him on the head. A fierce fight started between the two gaints. The two gaints pulled up trees and hit each other with them very hard. Soon they were both hurt badly that they fell to the ground. They were unable to move and lay there still.
