Ch 2 :- EVERYTHING IS POSSIBLE

Anjali's parents had moved to Junagrah a month ago. Her father, Ashish, was the commissioner of the city. Her mother, Suman, worked with a bank. Anjali had simply fallen in love with the lush green city. She especially enjoyed the lion safari at the Sasan-gir sanctuary, which was just two hours drive away from Junagarh. Anjali was eager to join her new school. It was Friday and the school was reopened on Monday after the vacation. She went to the living room and flopped herself on the settee, her favourite haunt to read storybooks. Late in the afternoon, she heard someone enter her house. Mother informed it was Raghuram. He was the gardener who lived in the outhouse located in the mango orchard behind their home. He had brought some fresh mangoes.
