My Village

I live at Rampura it is a small but very beautiful village.

About two thousand people live here.

They belong to different religions but live peacefully and happily.

The people of my village are educated and occupied in different professions.

My village facilities like schools hospitals Bank Post Office market etc.

We keep our village clean and beautiful we have banned single use plastic in our village.

I love my village very much .

H.W write and remember it.
