THE THIRSTY CROW

once in the month of Summer a thirsty crow was flying here and there in search of water . Suddenly he saw a jug with a very small amount of water. when he tried to drink the water he could not do so as the level of the water was very low . The crow was very clever and he hit upon an idea , he collected some pebbles And dropping them into the jug. As the level of water Rose, he quenched his thirst Heartily and flew away.
