

VIDYA BHAWAN BALIKA VIDYAPEETH, LAKHISARAI

CLASS-4

SUBJECT-ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES

DATE-04-01-2022

BY-KIRTI KUMARI

BASED ON NCERT PATTERN

Chapter-12, Our Forests

Page number:- 87

C. Answer these questions.

1. How are forests important to us?

Answer:- Forests are important to us because they give shelter to animals and prevent soil erosion.

2. What is the difference between evergreen and Deciduous trees?

Answer:- Evergreen trees remain green throughout the year.

While Deciduous trees shed their leaves in the dry season.

3. Where do we find thorn , Mountain and Mangrove forests in India?

Answer:- We find thorn forests in Rajasthan. Mountain forests in The Himalayas. And the mangrove forests in Ganga-Brahmaputra delta.

4. What is afforestation?

Answer:- Growing trees in large scale is called afforestation.

5. Why have national parks and wildlife sanctuaries been set up?

Answer- National parks and wildlife sanctuaries are set up to protect wild animals .

Homework-Write and Remember.