Ch 2 Everything is possible

Anjali loved mangoes and she jumped up with joy. Hurrah! She grabbed a mango in each hand and ran off to the garden swing to enjoy the juicy fruits. As she was swinging, she saw a timid face peep from behind the tree. She called out, who are you? I am Pinky. My father works in the mango orchard. Anjali invited her to play with her on the swing and shared a mango with her. Many days went by and both the girls became very good friends. One day, Anjali asked, I have never seen you go to school. Why? Pinky looked very uncomfortable. She did not answer and simply ran away. Anjali was puzzled. The next day, too, there was no sign of Pinky. Anjali missed her friend, and decided to go with her mother and meet Pinky at the outhouse.
