

Lesson 1 : Revision (Grammar: Syntax)

You know that a sentence has two parts.

- Subject
- Predicate

Subject is the main part of a sentence as we talking about. Ex:- Kamal is reading.

We are talking about kamal. Who is reading?

Kamal is reading so Kamal is subject.

And, predicate is reading because what is Kamal doing? Kamal is reading so we see a sentence has two part.

Today in homework match the column and make a meaningful and sensible group of words means sentence.

D. Match the subject with the most appropriate predicate.

He	flies very fast.
Bees	is made of wheat flour.
The policeman	helped the blind man.
An aroplane	looked the door from outside.
Grapes	brought our letters.
The chemist	gave him the wrong medicine.
The postman	were sour.
Bread	make honey in their hive.
The doorman	caught the thief.

Subject Tr. Rohit Kumar