

Based on NCERT pattern

Lesson 4: Trapped

Compression

C. How tired you must be! Now sit down and wait. I will get you out of this?

1. Who makes this statement and to whom?

Answer:- The girl said this statement to the bear.

b. Why would the listener be tired?

Answer:- The children and some dogs were chasing the bear so the bear listener got tired.

2.I have got a ladder, ' he said a.Who is he?

Answer:- Lakshmana is he.

b.Why has he brought a ladder?

Answer:- Lakshmana has brought ladder for rescue of bear.

D.Answer the following questions.

1. How did the bear come out of the well?

Answer:- Lakshmana brought a ladder and the bear slowly and slowly put his leg on the ladder and come out of the well.

2.How did the bear realise that Meera did not mean him any harm?

Answer:- Meera looked into the well and told very softly. Listening the softly sound of Meera, the bear understood that she will save him.

3.What kind of girl was Meera? Support your answer with evidence from the story?

Answer:-Meera is a kind girl. When all children were trying to catch the bear but Meera tried to save him and this incident shows that Meera was a kind hearted girl.

4.If Meera had not arrived there, what would have probably happened to the young bear?

Answer:- If Meera had not arrived there, may be the bear would die there in the well.

5. Do you think the title of the story is a suitable one? Why/ why not?

Answer:- I think the title of the story trapped is suitable because all children forced to the bear to fall into the well.

