Work Book L-1 Chuskit Goes To School

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions.

One afternoon, Alan, a seven year old boy with a limp, and his father walked in a park where some boys were playing cricket. Alan wondered, “ will they let me play? “

Alan's father knew that his son was not athletic . But he understood that if his son was chosen to play , it would give him a sense of achievement. Alan's father approached the boys and asked if Alan could play with them. A boy said ,” we are trailing by sixteen runs currently. He can be on our team and we will let him bat last. “ Alan's father was delighted. Alan was told to get ready. When Alan's team needed just one run to win, the second- last batsman got run out. It was now Alan's turn to bat.

Alan didn't even know to hold the bat properly. As he stepped up to the pitch, the bowler threw the ball in softly so Alan should be able to make contact.

The first ball came and Alan missed. The bowler again tossed the ball softly towards Alan. Alan hit the ball towards the bowler. The bowler picked it up and threw it high to the right fielder. He could easily have thrown it to the wicket keeper and Alan would have been out.

Every one started yelling, Alan, Alan, run! but Alan didn't able to run fast. By the time he reached the halfway, the fielder on his right had got the ball. He could have thrown the ball to the fielder at the gully and Alan would have been out. But the fielder understood what the bowler's intentions were, so he threw the ball high over another fielder's head.

As Alan was about to reach the wicket, the boys ran with him screaming, " Alan, complete the run. "

Alan reached the wicket and touched his bat to the stumps! All the players gathered around and lifted him on their shoulders; he had won the game for his team.
