

Subject: Value Education

Class 5

Lesson:1 God Is Every Where

Today we shall study the new book Value education lesson 1.so many students have no books. What should be done? So today I am giving you lesson photo. You must write and read and understand.

1. God is Everywhere

START UP

God is always with us. He is not restricted to one place at a time. We live in his glorious presence every moment. When we are alone, God watches what we do. We need God's magnificent presence for any challenge that may come our way. He protects us from any danger. He is our saviour.

Read this story about a merchant who did not believe in God.

Once upon a time, there lived a merchant who did not believe in God. According to him, people believed in God because they were told about God. If they had never heard about God, they would never have believed in God.

The merchant had a son. He decided that he would not send his son to school, but educate him at home. He did not want his son to hear or learn anything about God. To keep his son away from other children and people, the merchant built a big wall around his house and garden. The merchant taught his son to read and write. He taught his son all the subjects that were taught in school. But he never told his son about the existence of God. The son never heard the word 'God'.

Years passed. The merchant's son was now twelve years old.
One fine morning, the merchant was walking in his garden, suddenly, he heard his son's voice and listened to the conversation
he ever heard.

The son was saying, "How great must be the one who has created the twinkling
stars, the sun, the moon, beautiful flowers, their
fragrance, trees,
mountains, rivers,
animals and other
fascinating things.
How beautiful! How intelligent! How wise!

I wish to know him, revere him, love him and worship him. I wish to thank him for his wonderful creations." The merchant was stunned to hear these words. He saw that his son was kneeling on the ground and saying those words. "Who taught you to say all these things?" asked the merchant angrily. "Nobody, father," replied the son politely. "But don't you think that someone must have created all these things?" The son continued, "Don't you think that the creator of these things must be great, majestic and intelligent? Shouldn't we love the creator of these things? Shouldn't we worship and revere him?" The merchant was appalled to hear the words of his son. He now realized that God is present everywhere.

fragrance : pleasant smell

revere : to respect

kneeling : supporting on knees

fascinating : interesting

stunned : amazed

uttered : making sound with mouth

The merchant suddenly uttered these words in praise of God :

This beautiful world, O divine Creator, is your temple;
Every moment, every place, your presence we feel;
Forever open are the doors of your temple;
The sun, the moon and the stars sing thy praises.
The poets have no words to describe your glory;
Where are you, O Lord?

Moral : God is the Creator of the Universe.

God is every where. इश्वर हर जगह है और हमेशा सबके साथ है । जब हम अकेले होते हैं तब इश्वर हमे देख रहे होते हैं कि हम क्या कर रहे हैं? जब तक हम जीवन के सफर पर हैं तब तक हमे god के आशीर्वाद की आवश्यकता होती है । god के bless के बगैर हम एक कदम भी नही चल सकते हैं । वो हमे हर खतरे से बचाते हैं so वो हमारे रक्षक हैं ।

दुनियां में ऐसे कई लोग हैं जो god के presence को नहीं मानते हैं । उन्हे हम नास्तिक कहते हैं । आज की कहानी एक ऐसे merchant या कहें एक व्यापारी की है जो इश्वर को नही मानते हैं कि ईश्वर भी कोई चीज हैं

।आप इस कहानी को खुद से दो चार बार पढ़ कर समझकर इस कहानी का हिन्दी summary send खुद से समझेंगे विश्वास है।

I hope you all are laborious and active. आप अगर summary नहीं कर पायेंगे तो मैं तो हूँ ही ।

Do you faith in god?answer pls.

धन्यवाद

सब्जेक्ट Tr. रोहित कुमार