

POLLINATION

SUBJECT TEACHER-SONI KUMARI

Flowers are the most beautiful and attractive parts of a plant .

It is different in colours , shapes and sizes .

Some flowers have sweet fragrance .

DIFFERENT PART OF FLOWERS

A typical flower has stalk called the pedicel .

It joins the flower to the stem .

The upper most part of the pedicel is some what swollen .

It is known as the thalamus .

Let us learn about the different parts of the flower .

Sepals

Petals

Stamen

Pistil

Don't write only read it .

A . Tick (✓) the correct answers :

1 . Which of the following parts joins the flower to the stem ?

(a) Sepal                      (b) petal                      (c) pedicel ✓

2 . Which of the following parts of a flower are brightly coloured ?

(a) Sepals                      (b) petals ✓                      (c) stamen

3 . Which one is the male part of a flower ?

(a) Pistil                      (b) carpel                      (c) stamen ✓

4 . The style and stigma are the parts of the

(a) Pedicel                      (b) stamen                      (c) pistil ✓

5 . Which plant produces monosexual flowers ?

(a) Rose                      (b) Tulip                      (c) papaya ✓

HOME WORK

Do CW in HW .