Ch 1:- The white elephant (II)

One day, he decided to abandon the herd, and go with his mother to Mount Candorana to live in a cave besides a beautiful lake that had lovely pink lotuses. It so happened one day that a forester from Banaras lost his way in the forest, and was absolutely terrified to find himself alone in the thick woods. He was weeping bitterly, and desperately looking to find some help. The white elephant took pity on the man and promised to help him. He knew every inch of the dense forest and showed him the way out to Banaras city. The forester thanked the white elephant before leaving for home happily. While passing through the bustling streets of Banaras a few days later, the forester heard an announcement; Listen everyone! King Brahamdutta's favourite elephant has left for his heavenly abode. Our king is now looking for new elephant to take his beloved elephant's place
