Independence Day

Independence Day of India is celebrated on 15th of August every year.

  It was on this day India got its Independence from British, who ruled our country for 200 years, in the year 1947, after many struggles and sacrifices made by our freedom fighters.

Sweets and chocolates are distributed to everyone. Some students come dressed up as freedom fighters which is treat to watch.

All the colleges and many offices also celebrate this day by hoisting the flag conducting various events and activities in their premises. People turn up in ethnic dresses signifying he culture of India or in Tri-color dresses,

It was on this day, Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime minister of India unfurled our national flag at the Red Fort for the first time.

  This day is celebrate to remind ourselves of all the sacrifices made by all the people who fought for freedom and to celebrate victory of independence.

H.W write and remember it
