CHAPTER NAME: - STRIVING FOR EQUALITY (ch – 2)

TRIBALS

Another section of our society which has been ignored and exploited by others are the Tribals .

Tribals live in the natural surroundings in the hilly region and are dependent on the forest for their sustenance .

The Government of India has taken several initiatives as an effort to bring this tribals into the mainstream of social life .

STRIVING FOR EQUALITY

India gained freedom in 1947 but our constitution makers realised that political freedom was meaningless.

They made provision for the equality to all the people of India .

The preamble to the constitution in silence that India is a :-

democratic and republic state .

The constitution of India contains all laws, rules and regulations of the land .
