CHAPTER NAME: THE FIRST FARMERS AND HERDERS

TOPIC : INVENTION OF WHEEL

INVENTION OF WHEEL is regarded as the first technological revolution of mankind . With this invention travelling and transportation become easier .

POTTERY : THE FIRST STEP TOWARDS CRAFTSMANSHIP .

As man become a food producer he needed to store food. Man showed his creativity when he made solid and strong clay pottery by baking them on fire .

INSIGHT INTO RELIGIOUS BELIEFS

The Neolithic man was not at constant move, he had leisure time to think about matters beyond his basic daily existence . Natural phenomenon like lightening, thunder, earthquakes and seasonal change we are beyond his understanding.

He was dependent on nature, he worshipped the sun, moon, rain, thunder, lightning etc.

Death was another mystery for the Neolithic man.

To understand this mystery he developed a belief in life after death .

Therefore Neolithic man started bring the dead along with the daily necessities of life such as pottery, weapons and food Items.

Thus, through such beliefs, the Neolithic man was taking his first step was a spiritual life .
