Chapter 3

Cypress Street

By-Todd-Michael St. Pierre

OBJECTIVES

In this chapter, we will:

read a poem.

learn some idioms and practise rhyming word pairs

learn to conduct a survey, and prepare a report

READING

The cypress is an evergreen coniferous tree that grows in the northern temperate regions. a street we named Cypress Tree, how would you imagine it looked like?

Now read the poem and write hard words

I took a stroll down Cypress Street
The hot sidewalk beneath my feet.

The one thing that stood out the most Where trees once stood there were lampposts .

I'd never seen so much concrete
No Cypress left on Cypress Street.

According to my Great Aunt Gem
There used to be a lot of them.

They cut them down. They took their wood

A treeless street is plum no good!

Just like a treeless neighborhood

So tell the Mayor next time they meet..
To change the name to Lamppost Street
