

Vidya Bhawan

Balika Vidyapith Lakhisarai

Class :6.

27/06/2020

Subject : English.

By. : R.N.Singh

TENSES

Look at the following sentences

PRESENT TENSE

She reads magazines.

Kiran does not read poems.

My uncle is drafting a statement.

Rakesh is not doing his exercises.

Harnaam has finished his homework.

We have not yet finished the work.

Mr Das has been teaching since 1991.

Her daughter has not been going to college for weeks.

All the sentences above denote an action in the Present.

When an action is in process or it happens everyday, it is said to be in Simple Present.

An action in process but not complete is Present Continuous.

An action, which is complete, and its effect still continues is in Present Perfect.

When an action is in process since a point of time or for a period of time, it is in Present Perfect Continuous.

Exercise

Write six things which you and your friend do everyday. The first sentence is given below:

1. I get up at 6 am.in the morning. Rohit gets up at seven.

2.

3

4

5

6