Master of ass was required to take idol from shop to temple. Idol was put on back of ass and carried through main streets of city. All along way ass saw people bowing. He felt people were bowing to him and felt quite vain of himself. Finally he became so vain that he stood still and refused to leave supposed worshippers. At this master gave him severe thrashing with cane. "Oh you fool, said master, "things have not become so bad as yet that people may start worshipping asses.
