

VIDYA BHAWAN,

BALIKA VIDYAPITH

Class-8 Subject-English

Date-7/12/2021 Day-Tuesday

CONJUNCTION (CONTD.)

(We have already discussed about coordinating conjunction, now today I will discuss about Subordinating conjunction.)

Subordinating conjunction also join similar words, phrases

or elements exists in pairs.

Examples of some correlative conjunction:-

a. Either-or : This correlative conjunction pair is used to join Positive items or options.

Example- Either I can stay at home or go to the party.

b. Neither- nor: This pair of correlative conjunction is used to join negative options or items

Example- Neither she can speak in Hindi nor in English.

c. Not only but also-This correlative conjunction pair is similar to using 'and'.

Example: Not only he is my friend but also yours.

d. Whether- or This correlative conjunction pair is similar to the use of conjunction 'if'.It is used only to join clauses.

Example:She is unsure whether she should stay at home or go outside for work.

e. Both-and:This correlative conjunction pair is used to emphasise the true facts in a given sentence. Example:

He has both a car and a bike to visit anywhere.

(Put down the above notes in your grammar copy and read it carefully. It will be discussed again in class to clear your doubts.)

All the students are instructed to complete your copy of main course book upto lesson-15 and submit it positively on Sunday.

Your copy should be covered with brown paper nicely.