L-1 PARTITION

BY- GULZAR

Second and third paragraph of lesson-1 which I am going to explain today.

It was sometime in the year 1984–85 that a certain gentleman named Iqbal Singh, a professor, used to write to me, saying I was his brother who had been lost during the Partition. After the first few letters, I wrote him a long letter explaining that I was in Delhi living with my parents, and I hadn't lost any siblings during the communal riots of those days.

Despite this, Iqbal Singh remained convinced that I was his long-lost brother and kept writing. Eventually, I stopped answering. After some time, the letters stopped coming. A year must have passed when Sai Paranjpye, the filmmaker, sent me a message saying that a certain gentleman from Delhi called Harbhajan Singh wished to meet me.

The author is narrating here an incidence, which is happened in 1984-85 .One man who was proffessor named Iqbal Singh used to write him (Gulzar)a letter . In the letter Iqbal Singh wrote that you(Gulzar) was his long lost brother during partition .

After getting few letters Gulzar wrote him (Iqbal Singh) a long letter explaining that he(x) was in Delhi with his parents and he had not lost any siblings during the riots which took place during partition.

Despite this, Iqbal Singh convinced again and again that he (Gulzar) was his long lost brother and continue to write him . But finally , Gulzar Stopped to answer the letters .As a result of this, letter stopped coming from the Iqbal.
