POSTER WRITING

Posters are made to announce an event, or for making people aware about social or environmental issues.

They should

- * be visually attractive, have slogans, and contain images/artwork,
- * have details of the event/product being talked about,
- * have the name and contact number of the organiser/address of the venue.

Imagine you are living in Egypt during the opening of the Suez Canal

Create a poster announcing the grand opening and inviting people to attend it.

You can include the following points.

the date, time, and venue

who is inaugurating it

if there is going to be a ceremony

important people who are attending the ceremony
