CHAPTER NAME : EDUCATING THE NATIVE . (CH. 8 HIS.)

British wanted territorial conquest control over revenue and civilize the native and changed their custom and values .

Education through eyes of Britishers- orientalist culture (knowledge of Asia).

1783 - William Jones in Kolkata junior judge Supreme Court and a linguist knew Greek ,latin, French, English and Persian .

In Kolkata started learning Sanskrit is interested were shared with others.

Henry Thomas Colebrooke and Nathaniel Halhed- were discovering ancient heritage marking languages translating Sanskrit and Persian.

Jones + Colebrooke + Halhed – started journal Asiatick researches .

Shared respect for culture of India and West explained that India attend Glory in past but it has declined.

Aimed to understand meaning and translate ancient text - Re Discover Heritage and glory of past .

Britishers became Guardians Of Indian culture and master as well.

British should encourage Sanskrit and Persian and only then can then win the heart of native but Idea was opposed by many .

Thanks

Amresh Kumar.
