CHAPTER NAME : - HOW , WHEN AND WHERE

Topic : - How important are dates

- The reason for associating dates with history
Below

earlier there was a time when history was an account.

- This is one style of recording history of battles and big events (dates centric his was recorded.)
- E.g. when the king was crown married died etc.
- Another style of recording the history is also there which is not date centric (event based.)
- E.g. how people earned their livelihood what they produced and ate etc.

Which dates .

- History is not all about dates but it's do play a very important role.

Below

Which dates : dates depends on events .

Below

If we change our focus of events and issues subsequently the dates will also change.

E.g.

 History written by British historians would considered rule of governor general as important (Warren hasting to lord Mountbatten)

 Their classification will revolve around the British governor general Indians and their activities will not have any role in it.

 Kitchen we will write the history from Indian perspective a new set of dates will become more important for us to know.
