CHAPTER NAME : - HOW , WHEN AND where

Topic :-- what official records do not tell us.

Understand the heading

- History written according to the perspective of the British government – absence of Indian perspective.
- Official record tell us what the officers thought, what they were interested in and what they were wished to preserve posterity .(Reality may be different)

:: History must be looked from other prospective also

Diaries of people, account of pilgrims and travellers autobiographies of important personalities etc.

Idea of leaders and reformers, poets and novelists work.

- Yet the history lacks the prospective of peasant, workers and tribal getting to know their lives was a more difficult task.
