Chapter 1

The fun they had

1. In the 8th paragraph Margie says that her mother had told her that all the children are not the same so they must be treated or taught differently. It's not easy for a single teacher to handle all the children at the time of short periods. On hearing it Tommy shows a bit of anger and says if she does not like the concept of old school it had better not read the book, she does not want the dispute so she promptly replies that she does not mean it as she wanted to read the book. They had just one - 3rd of the reading book Margie's mother tells her that it was the time to be ready for the school, Margie doesn't want to go to school but she can't deny her mother. Mrs Jones tells Tommy must have to go to school too. Before going Margie asks Tommy if she wants to read the book.
