Question 6.

Liberals were not Democrats. Explain.

Or

Why do we say that liberals could not be called 'democrats'?

Answer:

The liberals could not be called democrats because even though they argued for a representative, elected parliamentary government, subject to laws interpreted by a well-trained judiciary that was independent of rulers and officials, they did not believe in universal adult franchise and also did not want the voting rights for women. They felt right to vote should only be given to the propertied men.
