Read aloud the following sentences.

Circle the words with silent letters in each sentence, and say which letter is silent.

A man with knobbly knees kept a knapsack on his knee. His gnarled hands looked like a gnat's, but his gnome-like ears attracted everyone's attention. He sat knitting and took a knife out of his knapsack, scaring the people in the community kitchen where he sat. Some people gathered around the man while others grinned at his foreign looks.
