BASED ON N.C.E.R.T PATTERN

Children, under this story we have been told that,

"O Lord, I want none of these gifts. Give me a weapon to kill others as you have given to the lion, tiger and snake." (All animals are afraid of them," said the bee.)

"So you want a deadly weapon, you foolish one?" asked the Lord. He was very unhappy with the bee but he decided to grant the bee its wish. "Alright! You shall have your gift." He drew out a tiny sting from his bag.

"Take this," He said, "It is a sting that will bring death when used." The bee was delighted and began to dance around God's head.

"Hurrah! I have got the most precious gift," shouted the bee.

God said, "Do not be so excited as you have both gained and lost. Your sting will bring death to the one you sting but it will also bring death to you."

The bee could not believe what it heard. It had itself asked for the trouble. Since that day till today, bees die the very moment they sting. The foolishness of the first bee has cost all the bees to suffer!
