

CLASS VI

ENGLISH NOTES

BASED ON GRAMMAR BOOK

CHAPTER 1

TOPIC- THE SENTENCES

C. Construct Compound declarative sentences:

1. He wanted to play hockey and his brother wanted to play chess.
2. Seema loves the beach but she hates getting suntan.
3. She plays the flute and her brother sings along.
4. She had to take the train in the morning and she quickly packed her luggage.
5. The house has new doors but the kitchen tap still leaks.

D. Construct interrogative sentences from the given declarative sentences.

1. She has kept the money safe.

Ans- Has she kept the money safe?

2. The treasure is hidden somewhere in Bahamas.

Ans- Is the treasure hidden somewhere in Bahamas?

3. The party is at Sunita's place.

Is the party at Sunita's place?

4. She couldn't make it to the party because she fell sick.

Ans- Couldn't she make it to the party because she fell sick.

5. He is Richa's friend.

Ans- Is he Richa's friend?

F. Given below are jumbled sentences. Rearrange the sentences and make them meaningful. Share the jumbled words at Book at page 11-12.

1. The rays of the sun protects us from the harmful layer ozone.

2. Our behaviour influences our society.

- 3. Chenrezig Statue of Pelling is located near Monastery Sanga in West Sikkim's Chloeling.
- 4. Veer Surendra Sai died on 23rd May 1884 in Asirgarh jail.
- 5. India Gate was designed by Edwin Lutyens.
- 6. The bravely contested Battle of Haifa is considered as one of the Battles of World War.
- 7. Maulana Abul Kalam Ajad was elected twice as the President of the Indian National Congress.
- 8. Harrapan civilization is one of the oldest civilizations of the world.
- 9. Guru Nanak was the founder of the religion and was the first of ten Sikh Gurus.
- 10. Mahatma Gandh used non violence and truth as his weapons.

HW- Do no. E at page no.11.