Chapter- 3

Topic – Simon Says

Author's Name – Cheryl Rao

6. Why did Simon seem? Depressed?

Ans- Simon seemed depressed because he was greatly missing grandpa since he had been met with an accident and was hospitalized.

7. What was Reeta shocked to see during her visit to the hospital?

Ans- During her visit to the hospital Reeta was shocked at the way Grandpa looked. He had laid with a tube in his nose, bandaged all over and he was completely still.

C. Think and answer the questions.

1. Why had Simon led grandpa into the path of a vehicle? How did Reeta realise it?

Ans- Simon had laid Grandpa into the path of the vehicle because he was deaf and could not have heard it approaching.

When she came home from the school and he did not respond to the sound of the rickshaw or her voice but continued to stare straight ahead at Ma who was in the kitchen. Therefore, she realised that Simon was almost deaf.

2. 'He seemed to have given up the struggle for himself'. who was Reeta referring to? Why had he given up?

Ans- Reeta was referring to Simon.

He had given up the struggle for himself because Simon was running a fever and was severely dehydrated and he was put on drip. Above all, he was desperately missing Grandpa.

3. Why does Reeta feel Simon Says was the best game in the world?

Ans- Reeta felt that Simon Says was the best game in the world because the bond of Grandpa and Simon was so impressive that it seemed that they live for each other. It was obvious that, because of Simon Grandpa could manage to live on his own. He could go for walks; he could do shopping when he wanted. When Grandpa was brought home from the hospital Simon began to bark and dance around. Even on Christmas Day she was surprised to see that Grandpa walked in unsteadily from the verandah with Simon leading him as he always did. Grandpa said Simon says that he was not old enough to call it a day right then.

HW- Write the Hard words and their meaning.
