B. Answer the questions briefly.

1. What did Sandip's parents want him to do?

Ans- Sandip's parents wanted him to take more interest in studying rather than in playing violin. His mother told him that music was fine as hobby but subjects like Maths would help him to get on in life. His parents wanted him to be as topper at maths as his elder sister.

2. Did Uncle Shekhar agree with Sandip's parents? Why/ Why not?

Ans- No, Uncle Shekhar didn't agree with Sandip's parents because he was also hopeless at Maths, he admitted. He said that the one who good at Maths can't gain all the varying experiences in life. He told that Sandip might become a great composer or a concert violinist or any of the million things available to young people that day.

3. Where did Uncle Shekhar work?

Ans- Uncle Shekhar worked as the Chief Editor of a news magazine.
