Chapter- 1

Topic – The Shopping List Mystery

Author's Name – Asha Nehemiah

1. What proof did the policeman find in the music sheets?

Ans- In the music sheets the policeman found ADA GAFEA, the name of the wealthiest woman in Brussels who lived on the Rue de BACACCE. She was robbed at gunpoint. Her name and address were in the music sheet.

2. What rewards and recognitions did Sandip receive?

Ans- The Belgium police department sent a special letter of thanks to Sandip. The Les Cabochons jewellery shop in Brussels sent him a diamond-studded gold tie-pin shaped like a tiny violin. From Antonio Sacherinni, there was a surprise gift too---a beautiful, very expensive violin.

In such a way Sandip received the rewards and recognitions.

C. Think and answer the questions.

1. Mention any 2 instances from the story that show Sandip's undying love for music.

Ans– a. He once forgot that he had turned on the tap to fill a bucket and looked only mildly surprised when he put his violin down and realized he was standing ankle-deep in water in his bedroom.

b. When his uncle Shekhar told him to come to Criminologist Conference where he would let him to meet Antonio Sacherinni, the famous Italian violinist. He was so delighted and agreed immediately and next evening Sandip arrived early at the World Criminologist Conference.
