

English Notes

Class - VII

Based on Course Book

Chapter- 2

Topic – Bob Dylan: The Voice of a Generation

Read the paragraph. Some of the highlighted verbs have been used incorrectly. Cross them out and write the correct ones. (See incorrect paragraph at page no. 36).

Sandip loves to play violin. He concentrates so much on playing the violin that some days he forgets everything else. Neither his father nor his mother wants him to play the violin all the time. His parents think it is better if he concentrates on his studies rather than play the violin. One day Sandip's uncle arrives from Delhi and takes him to the World Criminologists Conference. In the conference, Sandip hears an interesting unsolved mystery. He listens very carefully and realizes that the solution lies in the music sheet. He decodes the music sheet and helps the police find the person behind the thefts.

B. Fill in the blanks with For or Since.

1. I have been playing football for over five years.
2. Have you lived in Delhi for a long time?
3. Jannat and I have known each other since we were in class I.
4. Rahul and Mohan haven't met since three years.
5. We go to our Grandfather's house for two months every year.
6. I have not eaten since morning.
7. She has been working in the school for as long as I remember.
8. The weather has been beautiful since the beginning of April.

CHAPTER 3 – PAGE NO. 41

A. Read the lines from the poem and answer the questions.

1. We are the music makers,
And we are the dreamers of dreams,
What do you think dreamers mean in the poem's context?
 - a. A person who dreams

- b. A person who lives in a world of fantasy, and is impractical and unrealistic.*
- c. A person whose ideas are considered fearless, a visionary*

Ans- In the poem's context, dreamers mean – 'A person whose ideas are considered fearless, a visionary'.

2. Wandering by lone sea-breakers

And sitting by desolate streams;

What do these lines suggest?

- a. The music makers are happy people.*
- b. The lines reflect the anxiety and loneliness in the music makers.*
- c. The music makers love to sit alone by the stream.*

Ans- These lines suggest that 'The music makers love to sit alone by the stream'.

Write the hard words and their meanings of the poem.