

English Notes

Class- VII

Based on Literature

Chapter- 2

Topic – Excuses, Excuses

Author's Name – Gareth Owen

Rewrite the sentence replacing the underlined words with their meanings from the box.

1. The market square is totally dead at night.

The market square is quiet at night.

2. By the time I reached home I was dead as usual.

By the time I reached home I was exhausted as usual.

3. My phone has suddenly gone dead.

My phone has suddenly stopped working.

4. This soda tastes quite dead.

5. This soda tastes dull and tasteless.

6. While walking down we suddenly came to a dead end.

While walking down we suddenly came to a place that leads nowhere.

7. The passerby directed us to the building which was dead ahead.

The passerby directed us to the building which was right in front.

8. I am dead certain that I shall get the role in the Play.

I am absolutely sure that I shall get the role in the play.

9. The empire declared that it was a dead ball.

The empire declared that it was outside the area of play.

10. I hope I wouldn't be seen dead in this bright green dress.

I hope I wouldn't be seen embarrassed in this bright green dress.

HW- Do Writing at page number 26.